PROCLAMATION

RECOGNIZING MAY 2 AS A DAY OF PRAYER AND FASTING IN CRYSTAL

WHEREAS, throughout our country's history, citizens of many religions and beliefs have turned to prayer for strength, hope, and guidance; and

WHEREAS, the First Amendment of our United States Constitution protects the rights of free speech and religious liberty, including the right of all citizens to pray; and

WHEREAS, the United States observes an annual National Day of Prayer and fasting on the first Thursday in May to recommit to the core freedoms that defined and guided our country from its earliest days and to celebrate that we can exercise our convictions freely regardless of faith or belief.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jim Adams, Mayor of the City of Crystal, do hereby proclaim May 2 as a Day of Prayer and fasting in Crystal and that Crystal residents are invited to pray and fast, consistent with their own faiths, for our many freedoms, and for the benefit of our City, State, and Country.

Proclaimed this April 16, 2024.

Jim Adams, Mayor
